Pascale Rion Vosne-Romanée

Located in the heart of Nuits-Saint-Georges, the Rion family estate carries forward a remarkable legacy rooted in centuries of Burgundian tradition. With 4.3 hectares carefully tended using sustainable and reasoned viticulture, the family combines respect for the land with hands-on expertise. Their dedication to preserving soil health, vine vitality, and terroir expression ensures that each vintage reflects the unique character and heritage of this historic appellation.

Vosne-Romanée lies at the heart of the Côte de Nuits and is regarded as one of the crown jewels of Burgundy. This small appellation is steeped in centuries of viticultural tradition and produces some of the most elegant and refined expressions of Pinot Noir in the world. Surrounded by legendary Grand and Premier Crus, Vosne-Romanée offers an authentic and nuanced representation of its unique terroir.

The vineyards are ideally situated on gentle slopes facing east, with soils composed of limestone and clay interspersed with marl. The conditions, combined with low-yielding vines and meticulous farming, contribute to wines of remarkable aromatic precision and long aging potential. Every detail of the growing and winemaking process is carefully managed to respect the identity of the site.
